

Federal Bike Challenge

Sign-up as a solo rider

1. Go to <http://www.luum.com/challenges/88/bike-month-challenge> [Cascade Bicycle Club provides the website through Luum for the Federal Bike Challenge (formerly the Federal Bike to Work Challenge)]
2. Click on 'Join Challenge'

The screenshot shows the Luum platform interface for the Bike Month Challenge. At the top, there are navigation links: 'luum.', 'Compete Challenge Yourself', 'Learn How Luum Works', 'Sign Up', 'Log In', and social media icons for Facebook and Log In.

The main content area features a large blue banner with the text 'BIKE MONTH CHALLENGE' and a gear icon. To its right, the challenge details are displayed:

- Bike Month Challenge
- #UnlockYourCity
- by Cascade Bicycle Club | 5/1/2015 - 5/31/2015
- 0 trips (0% of goal, Goal: 300,000 trips)
- 17 days to start
- 1,174 participants
- 238 teams

Below this, there are tabs for 'Challenge' (which is selected), 'Leaderboard', and 'Invite'. A search bar is also present.

The challenge description below the banner states:

The Bike Month Challenge is Cascade Bicycle Club's annual fun, free online trip-tracking contest. Ride solo or form a team of coworkers or friends and challenge yourself and others to ride as much as possible during the month of May. Earn bragging rights and prizes for your bike trips and inspire a friend to try biking. All participants are eligible for a free souvenir and prizes, and team captains get a free T-shirt and party at the Captains Bash. New this year: You can track all your bike trips on our sleek new website, whether you're riding to work, to coffee or just for fun.

A red arrow points to the green 'Join Challenge' button.

On the left, there is a link to 'Read the full challenge details' and a section titled 'Organization Leaderboard' showing the following table:

Rank	Organization	Trips	Miles
		Total	Avg.
1	ACCES Animal Critical Care and Emergency...	0	0

To the right of the table, there is a call-to-action box:

I pledge to bike as much as possible during May.
